BAPTISTS RAISE FUND FOR ANNUAL BUDGET

Team of Every Member Canvassers Solicit Pledges From Members.

Subscriptions which it is thought will come very near to meeting the demands of the annual budget which will be drawn up the first part of the new year for the first Baptist church, were pledged by members of the congregation Sunday afternoon to a team of 14 men of the church.

At the close of the morning services the team of every member canvassers came forward and were introduced to the congregation which was well represented at the services. During the afternoon the team toured the city and at the evening services made a report of their work.

Following the close of the Sunday school in the morning the annual business meeting was held and the election of officers for the year resulted as follows: Gerald Fahnestock, superintendent; S. B. Lowery, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Bertha Schlott, second assistant superintendent; L. M. Fisher, secretary; Miss Mable Roberts, assistant secretary; Edward Huse, treasurer; Arthur Hakes, chorister; Miss Gladys Grills, assistant chorister; Harry Graham, pianist; Mrs. Harry Shroyer, assistant pianist.

It was also decided to hold cottage prayer meetings this week, in place of the regular mid week prayer service Thursday evening.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL BE BOOSTED HERE

Business Men to Hold Meeting Tuesday Night—Appointment of President.

A meeting of the members of the Mishawaka Business Men's association will be held in the Beiger Furniture Co.'s store Tuesday evening. As this will be the first meeting of the organization to be held in some time it is expected that considerable business of importance will be transacted, including the election of officers for the ensuing year. J. De Lorenzi, president of the association, stated to the News-Times Saturday night that he is not in a position to again act as president, and suggested that some one with more time to spare be elected in his place. At the beginning of the new year the McKend Service Co. of Indianapolis, which makes a specialty of building up organizations of a like nature, will begin operations in Mishawaka and will make a whirlwind campaign to procure members for the proposed new chamber of commerce which is to be established here in place of the present association of business men. A number of the more prominent merchants of the city have already signified their intention of becoming identified with the new organization which, especially at the present time, is a pressing necessity in Mishawaka.

On their arrival here the members of the McKend Co., who will operate, will open an office in a central location and will make an extensive canvass of the city for members. They have agreed to raise 7,500 which amount will put the new organization on a sound basis. Manufacturers as well as merchants will be solicited for membership, and as a number of the former as well as merchants have signified their approval of the change, it is expected that the chamber of commerce will be an accomplished fact early in the new year.

The new organization will have a paid secretary, applications for the position having already been received from different parts. It will also have an appropriation for a publicity fund and several departments of permanent benefit to the retail trade of the city. In fact, its first interest will be to put Mishawaka where it belongs among the great manufacturing centers of the country. Every merchant and manufacturer in the city is cordially invited to Tuesday night's meeting. Mine host Ostrom will do the needful in the entertaining line, and as he is a past master in the art, this feature in itself should assure a rousing meeting.

OPENING GAMES ARE STRUCK FROM RECORDS

As the result of a stormy session of the directors of the Mishawaka Fraternity Indoor Baseball league held Sunday morning in Dixon hall when a secret vote was taken the double header between the Red Men and the Modern Woodmen played on the opening night of the season's schedule has been struck from the records.

The meeting opened with a formal protest entered by Director Glass representing the Red Men team, charging the Modern Woodmen with playing two men who were not of age. The two men referred to are Rex LaDow and George Sanger. Both men, the Red Men contended were of age and produced records of facts in the case of LaDow. However, it was decided to leave it to a vote of the directors present as to whether the games be forfeited to the Red Men who were played Monday evening or else stricken from the records. It was decided to have them struck out. They will not be played over. The games both ended in victories for the M. W. A.'s.

The schedule of games for this week by the Fraternity league will be as follows: Monday night, L. O. O. M. vs. K. O. T. M.; Wednesday night, M. W. A. vs. W. O. W.; Friday night, K. O. P. vs. L. O. R. M.

GOOD BILL AT CENTURY

The Paramount pictures at the Century this week will be of a high order of merit and will include Maud Allen who will be seen in "The Rug Maker's Daughter" tonight and Tuesday. The story deals with the rescue of the daughter of a wealthy rug-maker in Constantinople when waylaid by robbers, which paves the way for a romance between them and which culminates after many interesting escapades in their marriage in New York. The story is replete with many interesting and absorbing situations and in the hands of a highly capable company will be well worth seeing. Wednesday and Thursday Jesse L. Lasky will present the supreme photoplay favorite, Blanche Sweet in a picturization of the thrilling detective masterpiece, "The Clue." Friday "The Royal Family" with Ann Mordock as star, will be shown.

SAN CARLO GRAND OPERA exchange tickets are on sale at the Red Cross drug store. Full information. Prices $2.00, $1.50 and $1.00. "Barbain" tickets, matinee and evening, reduction of 50 cents.—Adv.

KNICKERBOCKER GUILD. The ladies of the Bishop Knickerbocker guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet Tuesday night with Miss Jeanie Terry, 123 S. Hill st.

WEARS ANOTHER COAT AND GETS PINCHED

Comes to City to Have Good Time and Takes Expressman's Garment.

Patrolman Henry Beeher made a smart arrest about 1 o'clock Sunday morning when he gathered into his today a man giving the name of Harry DeLampert and his residence as Mishawaka av., South Bend. The man had been hanging around the entrance to the Mishawaka hotel in the early hours of the morning and his movements attracted the attention of the patrolman who watched him closely. After satisfying himself that there was something "queer" about his actions, Beeher accosted him on the steps of the hotel and questioned him. In the course of the conversation the man stated that he intended staying in the Mishawaka for the night. As his clothes were not exactly of the cut worn by travelers who cultivate Mishawaka's swell hostelry, Beeher's suspicions seemed about to be confirmed. Just as the officer was about to act the night clerk came to the door and told the guardian of the law that the man had, a few minutes earlier, checked an overcoat in the hotel. As he was then wearing one he was asked what he was doing with another. He tried to explain that he was holding it for some one who had come from South Bend with him to have a good Saturday night's run in his commercial metropolis. The story, however, didn't connect well, and the police station. At the corner of Main st. and Lincoln highway a small group was gathered discussing the mysterious disappearance of an overcoat belonging to a driver for the American Express. The officer was interested as he heard the word "overcoat." He stopped with his prisoner, and the express driver whose eyes had been riveted on the South Bender, at once identified the garment as his very own. He said he had been delivering packages to the Lake Shore depot and while unloading them had laid his coat down on a seat in the waiting room and had missed it when his work was done. The prisoner had removed his own garment which he checked and had donned the other which had not reached the years of maturity of his own. On being searched $79 in currency was found in his pockets. On being booked he gave his occupation as that of a wood turner which he followed up by stating he was a teamster. His wife was called on the phone and to the police give a description of her husband's overcoat which tallied exactly with the one that had been checked. DeLampert will explain all about it to Judge Feig this morning.

MRS. FRANK EBERHART DIES AT HER HOME

Mrs. Frank Eberhart, 113 S. Church st., this city, and one of Mishawaka's well known women, died Monday morning about 5:15 after almost a year's illness of complications. She has been very seriously ill for the past few weeks and her death was not unexpected. She has been a resident of Mishawaka practically all her life. Mrs. Eberhart was born in New York state and came to Mishawaka when a young girl.

She is survived by her husband and one sister, Mrs. Francis Dixon of this city and a cousin residing in Salem, Mass.

NEW COUNTRY CLUB PROPOSED FOR CITY

Mishawaka is going to have a country club with all the features usual in such enterprises, as well as others, which will induce a greater interest in healthy outdoor sports. The matter has assumed definite shape, and a meeting of those interested will be held in the Mishawaka hotel next Friday evening when a report from a committee of which C. A. Ostrom is chairman, will be presented.

The committee have several places to select from and by Friday night will be in a position to recommend a site for the new clubhouse and land adjoining.

MEETING IS POSTPONED. The Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist Memorial church, which was to hold a meeting this evening in the entertainment parlors of the church have postponed it owing to a lecture before the Men's Brotherhood of the First M. E. church of South Bend.

DRILL TEAM TO MEET. A meeting of the Home Grove Drill club will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Barnes of E. Grove st. A good attendance of members is desired.

TO GIVE SUPPER. A meeting of the Helping Hand Bible class of the Methodist Memorial church will be held Friday evening. A supper will be served and the public is cordially invited to attend.

LAST WEEK FOR MANY OF LEAGUE SCHEDULES

City, Mishawaka and Ball Band Leagues Finishing Up.

With the rolling off of this week's games at the Ellsasser alleys by the majority of leagues, the schedules for the fall of 1915 will be finished.

Interest in most of the leagues is at its zenith, many of the teams in some of the leagues having more than an ordinary chance, with half way luck, to reach good "standings" in the city leagues. The Regular Hoosiers and Premona's all have a good chance of finishing in first place while in the Mishawaka league the chances are with the Federals and Flying Dutch.

In the Manufacturers' league, which league has been the most interesting of the season, there still remains a chance for the Ball Bands taking the cup, as the Ball Bands are only one game behind the South Bend Studebaker club. Owing to the fact, however, that the Studebaker team has held first position since the very beginning of the season, it is expected that they will take the honors.

The following are the standings of the leagues to this week:

MUNICIPAL CHRISTMAS EVENT TO BE GREAT

New York had its first municipal Christmas tree in 1912, and Mishawaka will have its third this year. The spread of the idea has been world-wide; even the Tommies in the trenches will participate in the movement this Christmas, their respective countries having arranged a tree bountifully laden with gifts which will be distributed amid the roar of cannon Christmas morn.

Elaborate arrangements have been made for the local event, which will take place Christmas eve at 7 o'clock. The good ladies who undertook the work in connection with the tree have met with most encouraging financial success, their efforts having succeeded even far beyond their expectations. From 15 minutes to seven the Methodist chimes will peal forth Christmas carols, while the children assemble around the immense tree which will be gaily decorated and will contain a present for every child in the city. Miss Jeannie Terry will be in charge of a chorus choir made up of school children to the number of 500, who will render an appropriate program of songs. There will also be a quartet and other musical features which will add to the festive occasion. The Woolen Co.'s band will be present and will lend itself to the enjoyment of the affair. At a meeting of the ladies held during the latter part of November, it was decided to ask that all citizens burn a candle in their windows the night of the municipal tree, and it is hoped every one will respond so that this feature may be made in keeping with the spirit of the occasion.

TO MEET TONIGHT.
The department of home economics will be held tonight. Mrs. A. S. Winey will have a class in fancy aprons. There will also be a class in place cards and other Christmas suggestions.

MEN WELCOME.
The Christian Woman's Board of Missions of the Indiana av. Christian church will meet Tuesday evening at the church. The men will attend.

TO ELECT OFFICERS.
The F. G. F. club will hold their annual election of officers Tuesday evening. After the business session a rabbit supper will be served.

PLAN TO ATTEND
the Chicken Pie Supper and Bazar at the Christian church Friday, Dec. 10.
